Things grow when the conditions are right.

It's true for industry, agriculture and it's most certainly true for people. At Lincoln University, helping you grow is what we are all about.

And we encourage you to do it your way, with diverse learning that fits your ambitions in an environment that allows you to flourish.

We partner you with industry to prepare you for the real world and to plant the seeds of a rewarding future.

So when the time comes, you're ready to go out there and grow the future for yourself and others.

Welcome to Lincoln University.
A place to grow.

LINCOLN
UNIVERSITY
TE WHARE WĀNAKA O AORAKI

Welcome

Kia ora from New Zealand's Lincoln University.

We are proud to welcome you to our country and look forward to helping grow your future.

As the first agriculturally-based university in the Southern Hemisphere, we have always had a strong connection to the land. And as the modern world grows ever more diverse, we ensure that connection is relevant to today.

We enable our students to realise their potential so they can help shape a world that benefits from a greater relationship with the land: from Tourism to Viticulture, Landscape Architecture to Agribusiness, and more.

Lincoln University is a place of great learning and growth. This happens through leading research, meaningful industry collaborations, global connections and world-class learning environments and teaching.

As a Lincoln graduate you will begin your career globally-connected, forward-thinking and ready to shape tomorrow.

Lincoln students enjoy a wealth of opportunities to develop skills here and in the real world. Just as importantly, you will be part of a thriving and inclusive student community, making friendships that last a lifetime.

And you will be doing it in a stunning part of the world among many friendly people just like you.

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to Lincoln University and this exciting new chapter of your life.

We truly look forward to helping you grow.

Lincoln Campus

Welcoming international students since 1879

In the heart of New Zealand's South Island, near Christchurch city is Lincoln University's Te Waihora campus.

Surrounding this historic yet modern campus are 58 hectares of green and pleasant fields. Around 3,000 students from more than 80 countries go busily about growing their future.

Great facilities are plentiful with advanced teaching spaces, a comprehensive library, leading-edge research laboratories with 24-hour access, eateries, a printery, world class cricket facility, a fully equipped fitness centre and even a travel agency.

It's the heart of one of the world's highest ranked small universities and New Zealand's best at harnessing the value of the land. And just like our students, Lincoln is changing and growing all the time.

Great futures grow at Lincoln

Choosing the best university for you is especially important when you are coming all the way from another country to study. With Lincoln, you can tick all the boxes. Take a look below at the 12 most popular reasons international students choose us.

01.

Great futures start here.

We believe the secret to an outstanding future is starting in the right place today. At Lincoln, you'll enjoy the perfect balance of credibility, experience and future-focus in a size that works for you.

07.

World's 15th best small university.

We keep pace with the very best. Lincoln is recognised around the world as an outstanding small university that delivers quality learning and achieves exceptional results.

02.

Our history, your future.

Lincoln is the Southern Hemisphere's oldest agriculturally-based university. Our story began with farming and as New Zealand and the international economy grew more diverse, we kept pace. Today we are uniquely placed to offer relevant learning, informed by the past, with a vision for the future.

15% higher graduate employment.

Industry both here and overseas know we produce outstanding graduates. A degree from Lincoln opens more doors and helps you get your career moving faster.

03.

A degree that works.

From Agribusiness to Landscape Architecture, Viticulture and Oenology to Tourism, Lincoln offers a wide range of degrees relevant for today and ready for tomorrow.

Lincoln offers a full range of qualifications including:

- Bachelor Degrees
- Postgraduate Certificates & Diplomas
- Research & Taught Masters
- PhDs

09.

90% course completion.

Lincoln does more to help you succeed. We offer students the skills to achieve their study goals. That's why nearly all of our bachelor-level students successfully complete their courses.

04.

Good for the planet.

So much of what we do at Lincoln involves land and how we treat the planet. Our world-leading research includes ground breaking innovations in decreasing emissions, alternative fuels and sustainable tourism. And through the Sustainable Action Group for our Environment (SAGE), we also have a group of passionate staff and students that work to make sure our campus is as sustainable as possible.

10.

More contact with lecturers.

Our staff pride themselves on always being available to talk to students. Our open-door policy is there to give you support and help you get the most from your studies.

05.

Being small makes a big difference.

We're New Zealand's smallest university, and that's a huge advantage. You enjoy a more personal learning environment and much more face-to-face contact with lecturers. Plus, Lincoln's village atmosphere provides a real sense of community and more collaboration among students.

11.

Leaders in research.

Through our own research, as well as our collaborations with world leading research institutes such as Plant & Food Research and AgResearch, we have more academics producing more world-class research than any other New Zealand university relative to size.

06.

The grass is greener.

At Lincoln, we are careful to avoid stretching ourselves across everything. Rather, we put our resources into what we truly excel at. Our history is land-based and that's where our future lies. If yours does too, you're in the right place at Lincoln.

12.

Gender balance.

With a 51:49 percent split between female and male students, Lincoln offers a diverse experience in an inclusive and enriching learning environment beyond just what you learn in your lectures.

Global reach & relevance

Why do students from all over the world flock to study at Lincoln University year after year? It might have something to do with our beautiful campus and stunning New Zealand landscapes. Or all of the friendly, like-minded students and outstanding lecturers. Or perhaps it's our long list of international credentials:

15th.

in the world for all small universities.
(Quacquarelli Symonds rankings 2017)

1st.

Tertiary institution in an English speaking country to teach viticulture and oenology in a cool climate.

One.

Lincoln is the only New Zealand university ranked in the UI Green Metric World University Rankings (2018).

44th.

in Agriculture.
(QS rankings 2018/19)

1st.

Agriculture-based university in the Southern Hemisphere.

Two.

The only New Zealand university with two elite university alliances in Natural Resource Management, Agricultural and Forestry Sciences, Life Sciences, Food Science and Environmental Science:

- EuroLeague of Life Science
- Global Challenges University Alliance

World class research facilities

By collaborating with the world's best research facilities and universities, it's no wonder Lincoln is renowned for its research.

Yili R&D Centre

Yili, one of Asia's largest dairy companies, established its R&D centre at Lincoln's campus in 2015. We work closely with them in researching all facets of dairy, from production to final consumer products.

Blinc

Created by five founding partners AgResearch, Landcare Research, Plant & Food Research (all Crown Research Institutes), DairyNZ, and Lincoln University – Blinc Innovation is focused on some of the most significant opportunities (and challenges) facing New Zealand's primary industries, with potential for enormous economic, social and environmental benefit.

Great local career prospects

The economic development and employment rate is much higher in Canterbury than other parts of New Zealand, full of potential and promising a bright future.

It pays to specialise

Lincoln focuses on agriculture, food and the whole value chain (including the environment, sustainable development, production, processing, supply chain, marketing, trade, and the end user).

That focus includes land planning and sustainable development – landscape architecture, environmental planning, land and property management, tourism and recreation management.

What does that add up to?
Graduates who are true experts in their chosen fields.

Small in numbers, big in performance

In numbers of students, Lincoln is the smallest in New Zealand. But when it comes to student performance, we come out on top.

- Highest ratio of Masters and PhD students in New Zealand: 15%
- Highest ratio of international students in New Zealand (40%) and around 1300 international students from more than 80 countries.
- Best teacher to student ratio in New Zealand
- New Zealand's most successful research university*

*In research income per full-time academic staff member.

Highly recognised by government and industry

Lincoln University has always had a close relationship with New Zealand industry and national development. And that is especially true today.

Over half of our Bachelor degrees have practical work and field trip components featuring lectures and research projects relevant to industry.

Lincoln consistently achieves the highest employment rate of any NZ University.

90% of our 2017 graduates are employed or in further study.

Lincoln is recognised by professional bodies in New Zealand and around the world and our graduates are always in demand.

Student Support

Student support

Leaving your home country to attend university overseas is a huge step. And it's easy to feel a bit confused or lost when you get there. At Lincoln, we understand what you're going through, so we have lots of special support for international students on campus. And our friendly staff are here to help you feel settled and at ease.

International Office

The International Office promotes and markets Lincoln University to prospective international students and works with its global network of education agents to provide high quality customer service. They also support students with programme and course advice and help students through the University's applications and enrolment processes. The team is proud to deliver essential pastoral care to international students during their time of study at Lincoln University.

International Student Advisors

The friendly and helpful team who can help you with any issue or concern, whether it's personal, legal, social, cultural or financial. Or if it's an academic issue, we can point you in the right direction.

Student Administration

Our team is ready to assist you with your student visa applications, enrolments, medical insurance, graduation, practical work and exam queries.

LUSA

The Lincoln University Students' Association (LUSA) provides representation and support for students. They also organise events and coordinate clubs and sports groups to keep you busy and having fun throughout the year.

Student Health and Support

We know sometimes things can seem daunting, or life can present an obstacle or two. And we really want you to know that we care and you don't have to deal with things alone. So we offer a full range of health and support services available on campus to make sure your time at Lincoln is a happy one.

Chaplaincy

Many international students come from a faith background, such as Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist and many more. We are here for all of you, as well as those without a faith or religious background. The Lincoln Chaplaincy team offer pastoral and spiritual support anytime you need it.

Learning Support

Located in our iconic Ivey Hall, the Library, Teaching and Learning team are here to help you develop your academic ability with learning support, access to our extensive collection of books and databases, study spaces and rooms, and much more.

Careers and Employment Advice

Sometimes choosing the right career path is easy. But if it's not, our experienced advisers and extensive resource information can help you make an informed decision. Lincoln students and graduates can access Lincoln Careerhub, a site that provides information about the graduate job market, internships, graduate programmes, scholarships, immediate vacancies and employer events. Plus we also host a range of recruitment events throughout the year featuring employers on campus for drop-ins, information sessions and networking.

Job Ready Programme

Developed in partnership with ChristchurchNZ and funded by Lincoln University, Job Ready is an internship business tool that effectively brings together Christchurch's tertiary institutions and the business community.

It ensures companies have access to the right talent for their business needs and gives Lincoln's international graduates a fantastic opportunity to start their career here in New Zealand.

And the benefits go far beyond just local horizons. Project Manager Simon Anderson says taking on international interns helps local companies open themselves up to the world.

"Christchurch is home to an amazing tertiary sector. We're producing some fantastic graduates and retaining this talent in our region," Anderson says.

Key information

Lincoln has a full network of support for international students to make your transition to New Zealand a truly life changing experience. We also use a number of other agencies for advice – see below.

Code of Practice

Lincoln University has agreed to observe and be bound by the Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016. Copies of the code are available from the NZQA website: nzqa.govt.nz

Immigration and your student visa

Full details of immigration requirements, advice on rights to employment in New Zealand while studying and reporting requirements are available from Immigration New Zealand and can be viewed on their website: immigration.govt.nz

Eligibility for health services

Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health and can be viewed on their website: moh.govt.nz

Accident insurance

The Accident Compensation Corporation provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors, but you may still be liable for all other medical and related costs. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website: acc.co.nz

Medical and travel insurance

International students (including group students) must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while in New Zealand.

All New Zealand universities, including Lincoln University, endorse the insurance plan known as Studentsafe University. You can read more about the policy, premiums and contact details for claims: lincoln.ac.nz/insurance. The Studentsafe University policy can be purchased from Lincoln University when you complete your enrolment.

Lincoln's global network

Once you successfully complete your studies at Lincoln University, you become what is known as an alumnus (male), alumna (female) or alumni (plural) of the university, meaning a former student.

You'll be part of a global community of alumni, able to connect with each other and friends of Lincoln University.

All students who complete a course of study are automatically members of the Lincoln University Alumni Association and membership is free.

Suganya Kamaraj (India)

Master of Science in Food Innovation

Suganya is studying a Master of Science in Food Innovation and says "[I] chose New Zealand as there are plenty of opportunities to work once I have finished the course, especially in the dairy sector."

She found the different study environment at Lincoln challenging but said, "Fortunately, there are workshops and specialists available in the library at Lincoln to help us with these issues." Her advice for Indian students planning on studying abroad is to develop some knowledge about your field of interest and find out more about the country you intend to go to.

Lincoln is well known for its friendly environment and excellent lab facilities. My professors are very kind and helpful.

Accommodation

Welcome home

There's nothing like coming all the way from your own country and finding a place where you feel just as at home.

That's exactly what you'll find with Lincoln's on-campus accommodation. It's a friendly village-like atmosphere where students thrive and make lifelong friendships.

Our campus is home to around 600 students during the university year and you can choose between catered Halls of Residence, self-catered flats or houses.

Students living on campus say it's a fantastic way to enjoy their time at Lincoln. You'll make lots of friends; there's always something fun going on and you're just a short walk away from lectures, gym, shops, cafés and bars.

If living off campus is more your style, regular bus services to and from central Christchurch make that easy too. Lincoln Village, Riccarton and Rolleston (suburbs in Christchurch) are popular options for student flats because of their convenience and exciting student community.

Study at Lincoln

Semester & academic year

How a semester works for a typical student

The University year is split into two semesters, with a two-week break in the middle. At the end of each semester there's a one-week study break, followed by two weeks for exams. Each semester looks like this.

One academic calendar year

As a full time student you will normally study four courses a semester. Each course is usually equal to 15 credits, and you need a total of 360 credits for a three-year degree. Postgraduate students will normally study three courses equal to 20 credits each.

Outline of a three-year degree

Courses are at different levels. Students start with courses at 100 level. These are sometimes referred to as “first year courses” but can be taken in other years. They generally prepare you for studying courses at the 200 and 300 levels, which are taken in your second and third years.

*Summer school is available for some courses from November.

Visit www.lincoln.ac.nz/Study/Summer-School/ for more.

Workload

Students are required to spend between four to five hours per week on each course (including classes, labs and tutorials), a total of 16-20 hours per week. Students should also spend four to five hours per week on self-study. Therefore, at least 40 hours of studying is required per week. One credit = 10 hours.

The Bachelor of Agricultural Science, Landscape Architecture, Land and Property Management, and Environment Policy and Planning degrees include 480 credits. The rest of Lincoln University's Bachelor degrees are made up of 360 credits.

Features

- The Diploma of University Studies (DUS) is made up of two or three semesters. There are three intakes per year – February, July, November.
- The Diploma of University Studies 2 (DUS2) takes two semesters. DUS2 is the only direct pathway into level 100 papers by a New Zealand university, and approved by New Zealand's national academic body.
- DUS and regular bachelor students will study the same course at level 100.
- The Diploma of University Studies 3 (DUS3) takes three semesters. The level 100 paper taken in semester one can be cross credited into semester two.
- Students with all A grades in Certificate in University Studies (CUS) are able to move directly into DUS2, saving one semester.
- There is a 90% pass rate for DUS2 and DUS3.
- If a student does not pass an individual 100 level course, it may still be possible to move onto the second year of degree study.
- Compulsory free tutorials take place after class.

English language school

If your English needs to improve before you begin your studies, we offer a special school that will help you reach the level you need to be:

English for Academic Purpose (EAP)

- The University's own English school has small class sizes
- Your pathway into any of Lincoln's programmes
- You are tested every four weeks, and if you pass, you can begin your programmes
- The most flexible EAP course of any NZ university.

Depending on your English level, you can study for 12 weeks, 16 weeks, 20 weeks, or 24 weeks (a four-week module). If you meet the required level before your enrolled period finishes, your remaining tuition fee can be transferred to the other programmes.

Students must have at least IELTS 4.0 to be eligible.

Our EAP course gives you the language and skills necessary for university study at undergraduate or postgraduate level. You can choose components to prepare for academic study, including:

- Reading academic books and journals
- Writing formal reports and research essays
- Studying academic vocabulary
- Using library resources
- Presenting academic seminars and talks, and taking notes.

Graduate Certificate in Academic English (GCAE)

GCAE is the only New Zealand university English language programme at postgraduate level approved by the Committee on University Academic Programmes (CUAP) and is also the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) Level 7. The objective is to provide an alternative to IELTS. More importantly, GCAE prepares you well for future postgraduate level study.

You don't need to take IELTS again after completing GCAE to continue postgraduate level programs at Lincoln. It includes the Bachelor of Landscape Architecture (Graduate Entry); Graduate Diploma/Certificate; Postgraduate Diploma/Certificate; Masters Degree (research/taught); and PhD.

This certificate meets the English Language requirement of IELTS6.5 of other New Zealand Universities.

Module 4: Weeks 13-16	ACEN303 (one module, total four weeks) Includes literature review and research study skills

If you reach the required level within 12 weeks, then the remaining tuition fee can be transferred to your specified academic programme. If you reach the postgraduate required level, you can study the four-week ACEN303 course to prepare for further studies.

Entry requirements

1. Bachelor Degree
2. IELTS 6.0 (no individual band is below 5.5)
3. If the student hasn't reached IELTS 6.0, they can study EAP and reach IELTS 6.0 before moving into GCAE.

English further study awards

Any student who successfully completes a minimum of 12 weeks of EAP will receive a fees rebate award to the value of $5,400 NZD when you enrol in either CUS, DUS or a bachelor degree.

Small class sizes

Academic English classes at Lincoln usually have about 12 students. Small class sizes mean you have the opportunity to speak with others and ask questions. It also means our teachers have the opportunity to dedicate more time to helping you.

Full-time study

At Lincoln you will have 20 hours per week in class. In addition, you will be required to complete homework and reports. All of this is to help prepare you for your future studies. You will learn how to read, write and communicate in an academic context.

Nur Khaririyatun (Indonesia)

Master of Management in Agribusiness

Nur Khaririyatun, or Khori, chose Lincoln because of its high world ranking. "The courses are applied, and I am sure they will help me in my job. New Zealand is also very good at farming, so I can learn from that environment too."

She is really enjoying her study at Lincoln. "Good friends, good environment, and good support from lecturers. It's a comfortable place, which makes study fun."

She has some recommendations for international students. "Every student should do EAP (English for Academic Purposes) before starting their courses." You learn the research skills that are important for assignments, exams and research. "Before I came here, I was so nervous because my English is not good. The most important thing is to think positive and work hard. New Zealand is a very beautiful country. You will not be disappointed."

Don't worry about your English as you can learn here.

Alex Nguyen (Vietnam)

Master of Business (Global Management and Marketing)

Alex Nguyen is constantly surprised by the friendliness of fellow Lincoln students and staff. "It makes my day," he says. "People are more open here than they are at home. Service is friendlier too." Before coming to New Zealand, Alex worked in marketing and customer services, so a friendly environment is something he notices and values highly.

Alex came to Lincoln on an International Merit Scholarship, and has quickly made friends. He even recently performed a traditional Vietnamese dance with a group of other Vietnamese students at Lincoln's famous annual international night.

Alex is making the most of his time in New Zealand and the opportunities presented at Lincoln.

People are open and friendly here. It makes my day.

Appendix

Terminology

Block

Each course is assigned to a timetable block. Each block is then allotted certain hours in the week, during which lectures will take place.

Course

Each qualification consists of a number of courses, which are set out in the regulations for the qualification. A course is a module of work for which a grade is given that appears on the student's transcript.

Credits

The number of credits allocated to a course is a measure of the size of the course, eg. 120 credits equals one full-time year.

Elective

An elective is a course that is not part of the core of a programme, but which is available to students enrolled in that programme.

Enrolment

The process where students notify the university of their intention to study by providing detailed information and enrolling in (selecting) courses.

Faculty

A group of staff members who conduct or assist with teaching and research in a particular field. Faculties also group departments and research centres together. The head of the faculty is the Dean.

Laboratory

Many courses have laboratory requirements. These are usually practical sessions related to lecture material.

Lecture

The main method of teaching at university. These are classes held at prescribed times for each course. The university timetable outlines when each lecture is held for each course.

Level

Courses are taught at different levels that reflect the difficulty and the degree of advancement of the course. For example, 100-level courses are generally taken in the first year of a Bachelor's degree; 600-level courses are usually taken at Master's degree level.

Major

An area of study in which you specialise by taking a group of subjects including advanced level subjects.

Orientation

A programme of events at the start of the semester to introduce new students to university life. The first week of lectures is often known as O Week (Orientation Week).

Postgraduate

Further study usually undertaken by students who have completed an appropriate Bachelor's degree.

Practical Work

Some programme regulations require a specified period of related practical work to be completed before the student may graduate or be awarded their certificate or diploma. This is work undertaken in a workplace with criteria that must be met in order to achieve the qualification.

Prerequisite

In some cases, students may not enrol in an advanced course unless they have satisfactorily completed a lower level course in the same field. In this case, the required lower level course is called a prerequisite. A course is only listed as a prerequisite for an advanced course if students could not reasonably be expected to handle the advanced course without having the prerequisite.

Qualification

Each qualification consists of a number of courses which are set out in the regulations for the qualification.

Recommended preparation (prep)

When one course is thought to be important, but not absolutely essential, as preparation for an advanced course, the course will be listed as recommended preparation for the advanced course. Students are advised to have taken the recommended preparation before enrolling in the advanced course. They are not, however, required to have taken the recommended preparation.

Restriction

Students may not receive credit for two courses that have a substantial amount of material in common. If there are two courses in the same schedule that have a substantial amount of common material, then there will be a restriction between them. In that case, you may not credit both to the degree or diploma.

Semester

The academic year is divided into two halves called semesters. The word 'semester' derives from the Latin words 'for six and month'.

Subject

The components or modules of a course. A subject is a module of work for which a grade is given that appears on the student's transcript.

Timetable

A daily programme of the time and place where subjects are taught. All students receive a copy of their course timetable at registration.

Tutorial

A small group teaching session where academic issues and problems of a subject are discussed with a tutor.

Undergraduate

An undergraduate is a university student studying for a Bachelor's degree or a certificate or diploma that did not require a previous degree for admission.
